

EAS is building upon the tremendous success of the HASS 2009 events (all 10 of them!) and will host the fifth annual Healthy Active Schools Symposia (HASS 2010) to motivate school teams, provide up to date information, examine opportunities for sharing and networking and further support healthy active school communities and the partners that make it happen.

HASS 2010 is open to all interested Alberta school communities as well as individuals such as community health nurses or other practitioners. 100% of last year's participants would recommend this event to other school communities! Each event is presented as a partnership between Ever Active Schools and the local zone of Alberta Health Services.

Each invited member or associate school would be entitled to bring their EAS champion, a new teacher or health contact, an administrator, 4 student leaders, and a parent or community stakeholder. The agenda for the day will include school team planning time. Students are an integral part of your school team and should attend.

* If you are unsure of your schools membership status contact the office. For detailed descriptions of the EAS membership process and benefits, please visit www.everactive.org/membership.html

EAS, in partnership with Alberta Health Services, will provide the facility, snacks, lunch, materials and the supports indicated above. Content for the day would include (check the website for updated agendas):

- Opportunity for grade-level (students and adults) groups to meet together and discuss challenges and opportunities
- A variety of discussions and presentations (physical activity, healthy eating, mental wellbeing and student leadership)
- Large group physical activities to energize and motivate participants
- Opportunity to share and network with similar school communities
- School community planning time for teams to set goals, strategies and outcomes for the school year
